To night will be the last night for the disposition of articles at the Fair held by the ladies of St. Mary's Congregation. Persons wishing to purchase beautiful or useful articles, and to spend a few hours in a most pleasaut manner and in a good cause, should attend the Fair by all means. CONCERT,

The Fair by the ladies of St. Mary's Congregation is to conclude on to-morrow evening, (Friday, Oct. 13th.) with a concert at the City Hall, by Isome of the most accomplished yourlists and instrumental performers in the city. The ladies will be assisted by the Schneider family. The simple announcement is sufficient to fill the Hall; for heretofore concerts of this nature have proven the most delightful of the year's entertainment.-Tickets 50 ets; to be had at Butch's and at Smith's Jowelry store.

Hours AT Home.-The October number of this papalar monthly is before us, containing over twenty articles upon a variety of subjects, scientific, literary and religious. This publication grows more interesting every number. It should be read in every family, and especially in every christian family. Terms, $3 a year.
